SEABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH

Seabreeze, March 14—The town council at the regular monthly meeting let the contract for grubbing Grandview boulevard from Ocean to Glenview boulevard to Roy Mulkey.

Mrs. E. H. Galloway is here from Pittsburgh on a visit to her sister, Mrs. McGee, and Mr. and Mrs. George Farrell.

Mrs. C. C. Lines and Mrs. E. A. Scott, who have been spending several weeks at the Johnson cottage near the beach, leave Friday for their home in Peoria.

Mrs. Hapgood and little daughter and friend, Miss Devigne, of New York, are occupying the Wilkinson cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Hough and four children are occupying one of the Clarendon cottages on Ocean boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. Priest, who recently arrived from Louisville, have taken rooms with Mrs. Rankin on Ocean boulevard.

A congenial party composed of Miss Russell, Mrs. Davis and children, Mrs. Carpenter and children, Mrs. Frank Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Priest, Mrs. Rankin and Miss Baxter went to the Inlet Wednesday on one of the numerous excursion boats and enjoyed a delightful all-day outing.

Mrs. and Miss Flag and Miss Beach, of Springfield, Mass., are here for several weeks' stay, occupying Mrs. C. A. Burman's cottage on Valley street.

Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Granger entertained a few friends at 500 Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Olds and party left Miami Monday, homeward bound, and expected to arrive here today.

Mrs. W. C. Wetherby sustained considerable loss in the destruction of about seventy-five orange trees on her grove near Holly Hill last Monday. The fire was discovered by Mayor Ballough, who made all haste to notify the family.

Whereupon Herbert and Jerome Wetherby hastened to the rescue and succeeded in checking the fire. The grove contains 1100 trees, and but for Mr. Ballough's timely notice, the entire grove might have been swept by the fire.

Mrs. Mason gave one of her lectures on the "Science of Noble Living," in the Colonades parlors Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Frank Clark and three children, of Lansing, Mich., are here on a visit with Mrs. Clark, senior, who is occupying the Kelly house for the season.

Mrs. M. L. Stanley has been spending the week with Dr. and Mrs. Leland in their home by-the-sea.

Mrs. W. L. Duggett and little son have returned from a visit to her mother, Mrs. Gable, at Lake Como.

Miss Pearl Williams, cousin of T. F. Williams, is spending some time on a visit to the family.

On account of the indisposition of Mrs. Alice Goodman, regular organist, last Sabbath, Miss Weaver presided at the organ during the Sunday School exercises, and Rev. Marsh during the church services.

Mrs. W. E. Rra, who has been occupying part of the McPherson cottage on the beach, returned to Rocky Point a few days since. Mr. and Mrs. Rra have charge of the government life saving station and hospital at that place, which is some fifty miles north of Palm Beach.

A few intimate friends dined with Dr. and Mrs. Leland on the occasion of Mr. Leland's birthday, March 5. Six covers were set and an elegant repast was enjoyed. During the evening Dr. Leland in his graphic and entertaining way described an ascent made by himself and party of the Alps while in Switzerland, some years ago.

Postmaster Britton reports the post-office here as doing a much bigger business than last year. The hotels and boarding houses are full and it is very evident that there are more people in Seabreeze than in any previous year.

Mrs. G. H. Charles and baby, of Columbia, S. C., are visiting Mrs. T. F. Williams, on Grandview boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. Kitching and daughter, of Stuart, are occupying the McPherson cottage for the present.

Jas. B. Higbee and wife, of Cleveland, Ohio, are recent arrivals. This is their first visit to Seabreeze and they are delighted with the beauty of the place.

The reception by Mrs. T. Cordis, Mrs. Alfred N. Mayo, guest of honor, yesterday was one of the pleasant functions of the week.

Daytona Beach, March 14. A select party of Miami promoters had a love-feast on the beach Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hale and daughter have rented the Johnson beach cottage and will be in the city several weeks.

Professor Muschman and wife, prominent people of Quincy, Ill., who have been here for some time, left for home on the northbound Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold, tourists who have been spending the winter at White Springs and New Smyrna, arrived this week and have taken rooms on Seabreeze avenue, J. J. Bishop's cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brown and little daughter are here for a short stay, located at the Branch house.

Holly Hill.

R. Hubbel came up from New Smyrna on Saturday on a visit to Bert Heacock. George Rogers moved into his new house on Daytona avenue the past week.

W. Melton finished the well he was driving on the Walker place Wednesday, striking a fine flow at 122 feet.

Bert Heacock and family were greatly surprised Wednesday eve when thirty of their neighbors walked in as a surprise party or candy pull.

Mr. Johnson, the mail-carrier, has removed from his old quarters to the "Linsay Linn."

Esko Falmegust, of Knoxville, Tenn., was visiting his aunt, Mrs. Peterson, the past week. Sunday he left for Hollywood to visit his parents. He intended to stay longer, but salt air seemed to affect his heart action.

Miss Ruth Seabloom, of Ormond, visited friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shafer departed this week for their home at Spokane, O.

C. F. Wetherby sold his horse last week to a man on the Tomoka. Mr. Wetherby hated to part with it, as it was a family pet, but he had no way to keep it through the summer, as he expects to go to the mountains and did not wish to leave the horse with strangers.

Sunday School will be held in Wilkinson's store building next Sunday at 2 p. m., with services following. All are cordially invited to come.

A Bargain at Coronado.

Situated on north side of street extending from New Smyrna bridge to ocean, 3,113 feet and fronting 100 feet on river and ocean beach; subdivided into 55 lots; three furnished houses on property, now netting owner 7 percent. Coronado is a rapidly growing winter and summer resort, and this property is cheap at the price asked, $6,000.

Several of the private yachts, in part here last week have departed for points farther up the coast, among them being the Wacouta, Daisy and the Roxana.

Kane, the Ventriloquist, offers one of the most unique and novel acts of this kind ever presented on the minstrel stage. Mr. Kane, in connection with other innovations, introduces a number of Mechanical Walking Figures, among which are the "Mischievous Irishman," "Old Black Joe," "Street of plantation melodies," "The Noisy Parrot" and an extremely funny finale, entitled "The Telephone."

The "Military Inventor" is a very amusing skit which keeps the audience in a continual roar of laughter during its presentation.

Remember the grand street parade and band concert at 3 p. m.

A Strong Searchlight.

The yacht Wacouta, Captain George E. Crawford in command, which was anchored for several days in proximity to the Halifax River Yacht Club's house last week, departed Sunday for St. Augustine. The Wacouta's display of the capacity and efficiency of its searchlight attracted very general attention from the people on both sides of the Halifax river Friday night. Objects for an incredible distance were made plainly visible as the powerful rays were flashed up and down and across the river from the searchlight, and it would have been a difficult task for an enemy to have avoided its penetrating glare if it had been a time of war. Captain James K. P. Ellis, who commands the mid-larger Livestock, was plainly visible on his vessel on the other side of the river to the writer, and he was working like a fireman at his pumps.
